

Ministry Team Commitment Form

Before you begin serving in a greater capacity on a ministry team, you must review and agree to our general qualifications and expectations for Ministry Team Members. They are as follows:

I, _____, agree to the following true statements:

- I have completed the First Steps and Advance courses for new members.
- As a member, I agree to faithfully attend all services held at HPAC.
- As a member, I agree to be faithfully committed to a Small Group.
- As I have gained understanding of God’s Word and been taught the principles of giving, I agree to faithfully and cheerfully pay my tithe (10% of my earnings) and give offerings to further support the Kingdom of God.
- I agree to support my ministry team and church by attending special events and activities.
- I agree to faithfully and diligently complete all of my responsibilities as described in my ministry job description.
- I agree to be respectful and loyal to the Pastor and Ministerial Body, and support their vision and direction.
- I agree with, and will be an example in all aspects of our standards of modesty, which include:
  - Women: Wearing skirts below the knees (even when sitting); no wearing pants; no jewelry of any kind (including wedding bands); no wearing makeup; no wearing colored fingernail or toenail polish or paint; no wearing low-cut tops (exposing cleavage or indecency); no wearing form-fitting, revealing clothes; wearing shirts with sleeves at the midway point between the shoulder and elbow; no longer cutting or trimming my hair and wearing a veil during all services (in accordance to 1 Corinthians 11); no use of profanity or cursing.
  - Men: Wearing pants, and reserving wearing shorts below the knee to recreation time only; no jewelry of any kind (including wedding bands); not wearing tank tops (indecently exposing your body); no wearing form-fitting, revealing clothes; wearing shirts with sleeves at the midway point between the shoulder and elbow; remaining clean-shaven (only a well groomed mustache is permitted); hair to be cut with hair off of the ears and collar; no use of profanity or cursing.

In addition to the statements above, I agree to work in harmony with others, and to be a lover of the souls of people and Christ. I agree to inhabit a personal relationship with God through daily consecration. I agree to obey the instruction, exhortation, and direction of my Pastor and to follow the guidelines established by the Word of God, our church, and the ministry department that I am serving in.

I have read the above statements and pledge to hold myself to them with honesty and in reverence to God’s Word. By signing below I state my affirmation to the call to ministry!
